Slate River W.I. Submitted by Dodie Legassick

Here are two recipes that will suit the early fall season .
I chose to write the garlic soup recipe while on holiday in August in BC. While in Vernon I came across a stand of Russian Red garlic that is very spicy eaten raw but quite mellow once cooked. There are many types of garlic and each is worth planting in your gardens in October to harvest next August. Garlic has a multitude of health benefits for your immune system and heart, and blood to name but a few.

GARLIC SOUP

4 tbsp. butter

1 very large head of garlic diced

1 leek well washed and sliced

1 medium zucchini chopped

1 tsp. chopped fresh thyme or 1/2 tsp. dried

1 bay leaf

1/3 cup of cream or milk

1 medium onion diced

3 stalks celery chopped

4 or 5 cups chicken stock

4 potatoes peeled & cubed

salt and pepper

Heat butter in soup pot and add onion, garlic, leek and celery. Simmer over low heat without browning for about seven minutes. Cover with chicken stock and add zucchini, potatoes, thyme and bay leaf. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer for 30 minutes. Remove bay leaf, then purée the soup with a hand blender. Stir in the cream or milk and reheat gently. This soup can be served with a sprinkling of cheese or a garnish of parsley.

SPICED CRABAPPLES

SYRUP:

3 cups sugar

2 cups water

1 tbsp. whole allspice

2 cups cider vinegar

1 tbsp. whole cloves

3 inch stick of cinnamon

Carefully wash all of the crabapples. Prick each crabapple with a toothpick or small skewer. Cut the blossoms off the ends. Combine sugar, vinegar and water with a spice bag made with the cloves, allspice, and cinnamon. Boil the syrup together in large pot for 5 minutes. Add the crabapples slowly then reduce the heat to medium. Cook gently until the crabapples are only partially tender but not soft. Remove the fruit with a slotted spoon and pack into hot sterile jars. Pour the boiling syrup over the packed crabapples. Seal jars. These make a delectable snack and can be used as a dessert or as a garnish with a pork meal. Crabapples, by the way can also be made into crabapple sauce that is naturally pink from red crabapples. It's often just left on the trees for the partridges and other birds as a source of winter food. I hope you like this recipe. It is a real treat, sweet and delicious.

CHIEF'S CORNER

by Sean Horan, Fire Chief

I want to start this month's Chiefs Corner by giving a huge shout out to all the fire and first response members and their respective family members. To date (August 21st) we have responded to 342 calls for service, that is 100 more calls than this time last year and 1.5 calls per day! Add to that the training that occurs every week, equipment maintenance and the special prevention events, the time spent is staggering. There is not a day that goes by that I'm not humbled by what these people do for their community. You should be very proud of this group of professionals, I know I am. The next time you see one of the fire fighters or one of the medical first responders, please give them a pat on the back, they deserve it.

Speaking of training, in the last couple months we have had 4 members become certified in Hazardous Materials Operations (5-day course), 3 members certified as drone pilots (5-day course), 1 member certified to Fire Fighter level 1 (10-day course) and 4 members certified to Fire Fighter level 2 (7 day course). Keep up the great work guys!

If you want to become a member of the Oliver Paipoonge Fire and Emergency Services team, applications can be found on the Municipal Website. We are always looking for new members, especially in the Kakabeka, Stanley, Intola and Slate areas.

Lastly, September means Back to School! Distracted kids, school buses and daily routines turned upside down. All factors that increase the risk for a tragic incident. I ask everybody to slow down, stop and be patient with school buses. If the stop arm is out, there is a child crossing the road. Take extra care when driving through school zones. Talk to your kids to remind them of the dangers associated with back-to-school mayhem.

Be safe and remember- Prevention is the best way to fight fire!

SEPTEMBER ALREADY! I hate to say it, but winter is just around the corner and September for me always means I need to get ready for winter. Time to get my generator serviced and tested in case the power goes out. If you don't have a generator, consider purchasing one, or have a plan to keep your home warm during the cold winter days when the power is out. If you are using a generator, please ensure you are using an approved transfer switch so that you are not feeding power back into the grid and putting power workers at risk. Generators must always operate in a well-ventilated area outside your home or garage. It is also time to switch the emergency kit in our vehicles from the summer kit to the winter kit. Some basic items to consider for your winter vehicle kit:

- Food – that won't spoil, such as energy bars.
- Water – in plastic bottles so they won't break if frozen (change every six months)
- Blanket or heavy sleeping bags
- Extra clothing and shoes
- First aid kit – with seatbelt cutter
- Small snow shovel, scraper, and snowbrush
- Candle in a deep can and matches.
- Crank flashlight
- Whistle – in case you need to attract attention.
- Roadmaps
- Copy of your emergency plan

For more information please visit: Be prepared for winter weather - Canada.ca
Lastly, September 18-24 is Rail Safety Week. Did you know that 2023 marks the 20th year for Rail Safety Week and Operation Lifesaver Canada! Wow how time flies! Another great website to visit to get more information on Operation Lifesaver Rail Safety Week | Operation Lifesaver (oli.org)

LAKEHEAD REGION
CONSERVATION AUTHORITY

Lakehead Region Conservation Authority

submitted by LRCA Staff

The LRCA declared a Level I Low Water Condition for the LRCA Area of Jurisdiction on August 3, 2023. This declaration is based on one-month and three-month received precipitation and observed flow conditions in area streams when compared to the lowest average summer flows. Affected residents (households utilizing private wells) are advised to monitor their water levels and usage, as they may experience shortages if the lack of precipitation continues into the fall.

A new Pay and Display unit has been installed at Silver Harbour Conservation Area, replacing the coin box. Visitors to the Conservation Area are required to pay their $5.00 per vehicle day-use parking fee (including utilization of the boat launch) via the pay and display or have a valid Explore Card Parking Pass visible in their windshield. Payment compliance is enforced by LRCA Provincial Offences Officers as part of Section 29 Regulations under the Conservation Authorities Act.

The Silver Harbour Dive Park is now officially open! All certified scuba divers are welcome to utilize the newly developed Lake Superior access point (located approximately 130 metres east from the parking lot) for safe access and egress to the lake. Scuba Diving is not permitted in the boat launch area.

The LRCA still has some spots available at our upcoming fall Watershed Explorer programs. Space is limited and pre-registration is required. To register, visit www.store.lakeheadca.com. Programs are possible thanks to the generous support of the TD Friends of the Environment Fund.

Autumn is a wonderful time to explore a Conservation Area. The falls colours will be starting soon, and the weather will be cooling off which means less bugs. If you plan on visiting us this fall, we would like to remind all visitors of the $5.00 per vehicle fee. If you visit often, Explore Card Parking Passes permit day-use/parking at our ten Conservation Areas for one calendar year. Visit as often as you like. Enjoy one calendar year of recreation activities! For the low price of $40.00 +HST, it's convenient for frequent users, and a great gift idea. All Explore Card revenue goes directly towards the upkeep and maintenance of our Conservation Areas.

Byers Family Thank You

We wish to extend a huge thank you to the First Responders, Paramedics and Oliver Paipoonge police for their quick response, exceptional care and compassionate manner attending to Jim, on August 3rd, when he suffered cardiac arrest at home. Our family is overwhelmed with the outpouring of messages, cards, food and visits from neighbours and friends. We are truly blessed and will pay it forward.

We don't always realize how much of an impact and impression our loved one had on people until they have passed.

Thank you, neighbours, friends and family, we are truly blessed.

Take a Walk Through the Past

Items from the book written by Fred Goodfellow, founder of the OP Heritage Park,
“Museums...Their Operation and Educational Values”

Founders Museum varies slightly in the philosophy of good museum management. The museum has been called the treasure house of the community; there is no reason why it should become the warehouse of the community. I believe it can be the warehouse-a place from which other agencies (schools, groups., etc.) can draw for greater enlightenment. As a result of this philosophy everything of historical interest was collected—steam engines, cars, farm equipment, furniture, pianos, phonographs, stoves, ad infinitum. Money flowed like water but what a way to drown! As one can readily imagine more storage facilities were also required. New lumber was too expensive so old structures were purchased, dismantled and the precious building material used for construction. Then it happened! An “ad” listed a barn for sale which had to be removed. Ill never forget entering this fifty year old ‘football field’ it measured one hundred feet long, thirty six feet wide, and forty feet to the top. The droppings of cattle, the piled bales of hay, and the rusty assortment of farming tools were magically transformed within my mind into buggies and cutters of red and green velvet, into primitive and fine furniture, and into kitchen ware of gleaming cast iron. I believed in Cinderella so I bought it! I was hypnotized!

The dismantling of this huge ‘pumpkin’-transporting the tin, timbers, rafters, and planks to our farm twenty miles distant-and the rebuilding of it took seven years. In spite of entreaties for help from government, teachers, leaders of the community, little aid was forthcoming. The big year-1967 came, and passed with very few visitations.

Founders!!

By Lois Garrity

One of the buildings at Founders referred to as the “Red Barn” was a massive undertaking and I have no way of knowing whether the account was accurate as it was given to me at the time but I will recount its story as it was told to me, here. :

Sometime in the 1960’s there was an undertaking to build a University in Thunder Bay, and much talking and research going into the project. The story was told to me as follows:

The Bilosky family had come to this country from Europe, and had purchased land on the Oliver Road with the intention of farming. They had built a home there, and the barn was erected also. I am not sure who built the house and barn, perhaps a previous owner. Mr. Bilosky had 2 sons who wanted to go to university but this was not offered to them here, and they would have to go to Winnipeg to finish their education. He offered the property to the University Board if they would build the university on the site. The deal was made and the University was built. I am not sure how Fred Goodfellow aquired the barn but he did and then proceeded to move it from the Oliver Road out to Founders property. At the time he was driving a small Austin mini car, very tiny, and so to move the barn he took it apart piece by piece and loaded each timber on a small trailer attached to the Austin, he hung a red flag on the end of the timber and he would drive out to the property, unload it, and go back for another. Each piece was carefully numbered and marked so he knew how to put it back together. This took a very long time, and I remember seeing him coming and going by my door on Hwy 61. Many times he would come in, dragging his prize and stop for coffee and pie on the way by the house. It was convenient for him because we had a wide driveway with a lane that went in a circle behind the garage to accommodate our gravel trucks. So he was able to turn around and go out easily.

Moving and putting the barn back together took an excruciating seven long years! Piece by piece, he put it together as his Centennial Project, with the help of several local young people, like Fred Hurlbert and others from the area, most of them teenagers at the time, and was able to open it right on schedule for Centennial Year, 1967! He even added an extra storey, making it a three story barn! He installed an elevator of his own design to lift heavy objects from the ground floor to the third. The elevator is still in working order today!

CHILDREN’S ART CLASS AT OPHH

In July, Irene, a volunteer at Oliver Paipoonge Heritage Park, taught a 2-day kid’s art class that started at the beginning with understanding their subject, sketching and then painting. The final results were amazing! A follow up class will be held on August 26 & 27 with room for new artists as well. Thanks to all who participated and especially to Irene for taking the time to volunteer to share her knowledge.
